ONE reason Mrs. Pinkham's treatment helps women so promptly is that they have confidence in her. Through some of the many thousands of Mrs. Pinkham's friends an ailing woman will be led to write to Mrs. Pinkham at her home in Lynn, Mass., and will tell her symptoms. The reply, made without charge of any kind, will bear such evidence of knowledge of the trouble that belief in her advice at once inspires hope.

This of itself is a great help. Then the knowledge that women only see the letters asking for advice and women only assist Mrs. Pinkham in replying makes it easy to be explicit about the little things that define the disease.

Mrs. ELIZA THOMAS, of 634 Pine St., Easton, Pa., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—I doctored with two of the best doctors in the city for two years and had no relief until I began the use of your remedies. My trouble was ulceration of the womb. I suffered something terrible, could not sleep nights and thought sometimes that death would be such a relief. To-day I am a well woman, able to do my own work, and have not a pain. I used four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and three packages of Sensitive Wash and cannot thank you enough for the good it did me."

Mrs. M. STODDARD, Box 268, Springfield, Minn., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—For about four years I was a great sufferer from female troubles. I had backache all the time, no appetite, pains in stomach, fainting spells, was weak and my system was completely run down. I also had falling of womb so bad that I could scarcely walk across the floor. After taking two bottles of your Vegetable Compound and one box of Lozengers, can say I am cured."

Mrs. Max Blume, of 238 North Main avenue, were privately conducted at the house at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The interment was made in the Dunmore cemetery.

The funeral of Ruth, the 9-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Evan Davis, of 209 South Main avenue, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted in the Holy, Rosary church. Interment will be made in Dunmore Catholic cemetery.

The funeral of the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hedley will take place this afternoon from the home on West Market street.

Miss Anna Bell, of West Market street, will give a euchre party at her home this evening.

G. W. Davis is suffering with a gripple. The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Farringer, of Church avenue, is ill.

On Thursday, February 22, there will be an entertainment and concert given in the Adams avenue chapel, branch of the Second Presbyterian church, corner of New York street and Adams avenue. It will consist of an entertainment of the highest order, musical, literary and humorous. Charles A. Hartley, the famous ventriloquist and mimic, has been engaged. Mr. Hartley has traveled and is widely known all over the United States, and is second to none in his line of work. His part alone ought to insure a large crowd, and is worth the price of admission, which is 25 cents. Other first-class talent will furnish the rest of the programme.

Mrs. Mary Barrett, of 328 Beech street, died yesterday at her home. She was well known in the city and was universally liked and esteemed. She was 50 years of age, and is survived by seven children, Patrick, Thomas, Michael, Martin, Mrs. Michael Murphy, Cella and Mary. The funeral will take place Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock, with services in St. Patrick's church and interment in the Dunmore cemetery.

Lawrence O'Lennihan, a son of the late Hon. Maxwell O'Lennihan of the Archibald Mine, died on Monday. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

By small pluralities, the most of them less than 100, the Democratic candidates for Dunmore borough offices were elected yesterday. The fight was a most exciting one. A large vote was polled. The two tickets were:

School Directors—A. T. Irvin, Anthony Haggerty.

Miss Bertha Finn, of Diamond avenue, was tendered a surprise party at her home by a number of her associates. Games, singing and music were indulged in. Lunch was served at a reasonable hour. Those present were: Misses Anna Sherman, Belle Reading, Rachel Evans, Charlotte Gray, William and Susie Watkins, Jennie and Lucretia Thomas, Lena Clark, Gertrude Emery, Myrtle Thayer, Ethel Clark, Bess Noyce, Violet Danvers, Harriet
